

	POLICY# 6.10 Order Making Policy POLICY AREA Regulatory Services	Version No:	1
		Issued:	13 Sept 2010
		Next Review:	2018 After Next Election

1. Introduction

The District Council of Tumby Bay is committed to using the order making powers available to it under the Local Government Act 1999 in such a way as to facilitate a safe and healthy environment, to improve the amenity of a locality, and generally for the good governance of its area.

This Order Making Policy is prepared and adopted pursuant to Section 259 of the Local Government Act 1999 ("the Act") and sets out the steps Council will take in the making of orders.

2. Scope

Section 259 of the Act requires each Council to take reasonable steps to prepare and adopt policies concerning the operation of Part 2 of Chapter 12 of the Act. Part 2 deals with the making of orders.

This Policy will apply to those circumstances listed in Section 254 which states that Council may order a person to do or refrain from doing a thing under certain circumstances, as specified in the table included within that Section of the Act (refer Attachment 1).

In accordance with the requirements of the Act, this Policy also applies in respect of orders issued by Council under Section 216 (power to order the owner of private road to carry out specified roadworks), Section 217 (power to order owner of infrastructure on road to carry out specified maintenance or repair work), Section 218 (power to require owner of adjoining land to carry out specified work) and Section 299 (vegetation clearance)¹.

2.1 Unsightly Condition of Land: Section 254 The Council may make an order directing the owner or occupier of land to ameliorate an unsightly condition of land that detracts from the amenity of the locality.

Examples of such circumstances include:

- 2.1.1 the storage or keeping, in a visually obtrusive location, of building materials, disused car bodies, machinery or other articles;
- 2.1.2 a partially completed or partially demolished building or structure that that has been in that state for more than 6 months and is visually obtrusive.

- 2.2 Hazards on Land Adjoining a Public Place: Section 254 The Council may make an order against the owner or occupier of land to take action to deal with hazards on lands adjoining a public place.

Examples of relevant circumstances:

- 2.2.1 where a fence, hedge or hoarding is over one metre in height and within 6 metres of the corner of an intersection;
 - 2.2.2 where a dangerous fence such as barbed wire adjoins any community land or public place;
 - 2.2.3 where there are overhanging branches without a 2.7m. clearance over a footpath, overgrown vegetation or materials or structures on land adjoining a public place, which obstructs either the footpath or roadway;
 - 2.2.4 where stormwater from a property flows across the footpath or road or where a stormwater disposal system is not approved by Council;
 - 2.2.5 where a fence is required to prevent the escape of animals;
 - 2.2.6 where a flag, banner, flagpole or sign intrudes into a public place.
- 2.3 Animals that May Cause a Nuisance or Hazard: Section 254 Council may make an order against an owner or occupier of land or any person engaged in promoting or conducting an activity that creates a nuisance or hazard to health or safety associated with a live or dead animal or animals including birds, or otherwise to deal with animal or animals including birds.

Examples of such circumstances include:

- 2.3.1 slaughtering of animals in an urban situation;
- 2.3.2 keeping an excessive number of insects, birds or other animals;
- 2.3.3 keeping of bees within 15 metres of any building in the occupation of another person or any street, road, parklands, reserve or other land managed by or for or under the control of the Council or zoned for residential living in the Development Plan or where the keeping of bees may create a nuisance or danger to persons;
- 2.3.4 keeping animals which generate excessive noise, dust or odour or attract pests or vermin;
- 2.3.5 keeping an aggressive animal or keeping an animal in a situation where it cannot be adequately contained or may cause danger to the public;
- 2.3.6 failing to dispose of a European Wasp nest or to allow Council's contractors entry to do so;
- 2.3.7 keeping of more than three (3) head of poultry unless such poultry is contained within an appropriate structure;
- 2.3.8 the keeping of more than three (3) head of ducks, geese or turkeys over the age of 4 weeks of either sex, unless such birds are contained within appropriate yards and enclosures in appropriate locations;
- 2.3.9 the keeping of more than three (3) pigeons unless the pigeons are contained within an appropriate shed or loft in an appropriate location;

2.3.10 the keeping of birds referred to above and galahs, cockatoos and peacocks, unless rat-proof food containers are used, they are kept in a clean and sanitary condition and food allowed to remain outside such containers are for immediate consumption;

2.3.11 failure to bury or otherwise lawfully dispose of any dead animal or bird.

2.4 Inappropriate use of a Vehicle: Section 254 The Council may make orders against an owner or occupier of land or a person apparently occupying a caravan or vehicle which is used as a place of habitation.

Examples of circumstances:

2.4.1 where use of a caravan or vehicle for habitation presents a risk to the health and safety of an occupant;

2.4.2 use of the vehicle as habitation causes a threat of damage to the environment;

2.4.3 use of the vehicle as habitation detracts significantly from the amenity of the locality.

3. Guiding Principles

When considering making an order within the scope of this policy The District Council of Tumbay Bay will consider the following principles, which are considered central to the effective resolution of local nuisances on private land:

1. Each case for the possible use of the order making powers will be considered on its merits. Factors that Council will consider include:

- Severity of the incident
- Hazard/danger posed to the community
- Risk to health/safety of the community
- Detraction from the amenity of the locality
- Repeated occurrence of the activity/incident (e.g. duration, previous offences)
- Impact of any previous actions to overcome the problem
- Is the breach significant/substantial?
- Would an informal warning letter be sufficient?

- Are there any public interest issues?
- Whether there is sufficient evidence upon which Council may rely to exercise its order making powers
- The offender's attitude
- Number of complaints received in respect of the matter (if any).

2. In the case of vegetation clearance orders made under section 299 of the Act, Council will take into consideration the following to assist in determining what circumstances might effectively be a private dispute between neighbours:-

- Have the parties exhausted all other reasonable steps (including civil action)
- Does the vegetation pose an immediate and/or serious threat to health and safety;
- The apportionment of costs of complying with the order.

*Electronic version on the Intranet is the controlled version. Printed copies are considered uncontrolled.
Before using a printed copy, verify that it is the current version*

4. Process and Procedure

Except in the case of an emergency described below, Council will take reasonable steps, within available resources, to resolve cases of local nuisance by negotiation and agreement before issuing an order.

Except in the case of an emergency described below, before making an order Council will give notice of its intention to make an order in accordance with section 255 of the Act by:

- Giving the person to whom an order is intended to be directed a notice in writing stating the:
 - proposed action
 - terms of the proposed order (i.e. what it requires the person to do or refrain from doing)
 - period within which compliance with the order will be required
 - penalties for non-compliance; and
 - reasons for the proposed action; and
- Inviting the person notified of the opportunity to give reason/s, within a specified time, why the proposed action should not be taken.

Council will proceed to make an order without negotiation or notice, in accordance with section 255(12) where Council considers the circumstance or activity constitutes, or is likely to constitute:-

- a threat to life; or
- an immediate threat to public health or public safety; or
- an emergency situation.

5. Review Rights

Pursuant to section 256 any person to whom an order is issued (including an order issued under sections 254, 216, 217, 218 or 299 of the Act) has a right to appeal against the order. Any such appeal must be lodged within 14 days of that person's receipt of the order. The Council will ensure that reference to this right of review is included in any order issued.

6. Non-compliance With An Order

If an order is not complied with within the time fixed for compliance (or if there is an application for review, within 14 days after the determination of the review) the Council may (subject to the outcome of any review) take the action required by the order.

The reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Council in taking action under this section may be recovered by Council as a debt from the person who failed to comply with the requirements of the order.

Where an amount is recoverable by Council, Council may, by notice in writing to the person, fix a period, being not less than 28 days from the date of the notice, within which the amount must be paid and, if the amount is not paid by the person within that period, the person is liable to pay interest and Council may impose a charge over the land for the unpaid amount, together with interest, in accordance with section 257(5) of the Act.

*Electronic version on the Intranet is the controlled version. Printed copies are considered uncontrolled.
Before using a printed copy, verify that it is the current version*

Non-compliance with an order of Council is an offence for which a person may incur a statutory penalty provided for in the Act. Section 258 of the Act provides for a maximum penalty of $2,500 and an expiation fee of $210 for failure to comply with an order issued under the Act.

⇒: where an order is issued under section 217, if the order is not complied with within the time specified in the order:

- Council may carry out the action required by the order and recover the cost of doing so as a debt for the owner; and
- The owner is guilty of an offence and liable to a maximum penalty not exceeding $5,000.

7. Responsibilities & Delegations

This policy will be enforced by Authorised Persons who have been appointed (in writing) by the Council under Section 260 of the Act².

Council may also choose to delegate the power to issue orders under Sections 254, 216, 217, 218 and 299 of the Act to Council staff subject to conditions and/or limitations, in which case, Council will ensure appropriate delegations are in place.

8. Council Endorsement of the Policy

This Policy was endorsed by Council on 13 September 2010. Council endorsed the policy following public consultation on its draft policy. Written submissions commenting on the draft policy were invited within 28 days of a notice appearing in the Port Lincoln Times on the 22 July 2010 and the June 2010 edition of the Council and Community News. Submissions received were considered and taken into account in preparing this policy. A review was conducted in October 2011 without any changes to the policy.

Any future amendment or alteration to the policy, or substitution of a new policy, will be subject to the public consultation provisions under section 259(2) of the Act unless the alteration has only minor significance and is likely to attract little or no community interest.

9. Review and Evaluation

The effectiveness of the policy will be reviewed and evaluated by each new Council or when there is a change in legislation.

The Chief Executive Officer will report to Council on the outcome of the evaluation, and make recommendations for amendment, alteration or substitution of a new Policy.

Note: Public consultation is required on any amended policy, unless the Council determines that the amendment is of only minor significance.

² Authorised Persons have powers under Section 261 of the Act to enforce breach of orders by way of expiation.
